

• HISTORIC • HAZELWOOD SCHOOL
QUEEN AUDITORIUM

SOUTHERN SUPPER INCLUDED!
 IT ALL STARTS AT 6PM

Folkmoot, Blue Ridge Books and the Haywood County Public Library present the Southern Storytellers Supper Series, bringing southern culture and regional authors and musicians together for educational evenings of discussion, food and fun.

26
SEPT.

In addition to being an award winning author, David Joy enjoys hunting, fishing, his dog and nature. If you've read his fiction, non-fiction and articles this would not surprise you. Come hear more about how these traditional aspects of mountain life have influenced and found their way into David's writing and life.

17
OCT.

Growing up in Western North Carolina gave both William Ritter and Sarah Ogletree a love for the music traditional to our area. They sing old love songs, new love songs, and traditional mountain music. William earned a masters in Appalachian Culture and Music and Sarah shares with him a passion for harmony singing and good old-fashioned tunes.

21
NOV.

Courtney Lix will share stories of the women featured in her book, "No Place for the Weary Kind: Women of the Smokies." Come hear about women who possessed the tenacity and perseverance to survive in the remote Smokies of days past.

$20 advance
$23 door
$10 students

Purchase Tickets online at Folkmoot.org
 or call the box office at 828.452.2997

The Mountaineer

TOWN OF WAYNESVILLE
 "Progress with Vision"
 1871

Smoky Mountain news